SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

Obligations of shareholders

C1 All shareholders agree to be bound by the obligations on them as set out in these rules. When acting as shareholders they shall act, at all times in the interests of the association and for the benefit of the community, as guardians of the objects of the association.

Nature of shares

- C2 The association's share capital shall be raised by the issue of shares. Each share has the nominal value of one pound which shall carry no right to interest, dividend or bonus.
- C3 Only shares held by the nominee of an unincorporated body (alone or jointly with other nominees) can be transferred and only to a new nominee of that unincorporated body (alone or jointly with other nominees).
- C4 When a shareholder ceases to be a shareholder or is expelled from the association, his or her share shall be cancelled. The amount paid up on that share shall become the property of the association.

 - C6.5 a person who has been convicted of an indictable offence which is not, or cannot be, spent;
 - C6.6 a person who has been convicted of any other offence at any time which, in the opinion of the board:
 - brings the association into disrepute; or
 - is incompatible with the role of board member, committee member or co-optee; and
 - the board resolves (by a majority of at least two-thirds) that they should be removed;
 - C6.7 a person who is the subject of any composition made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts; or
 - C6.8 a person who would immediately cease to be a shareholder under rule C14.
- C7 A shareholder can be the nominee of an unincorporated body. In such cases the register shall contain the name and address of the shareholder and shall designate the shareholder as the nominee of a named unincorporated body. The address of the unincorporated body shall also be entered in the register if it differs from the address of the shareholder nominee.
- C8 A corporate body can be a shareholder. It can appoint an individual to exercise its rights at general meetings. Any such appointment shall be in writing, and given to the secretary.
- C9 No shareholder shall hold more than one share and each share shall carry only one vote.
- C10 A share cannot be held jointly unless by nominees of an unincorporated body.

Admission of shareholders

- C11 The board shall set and review its policies and objectives for admitting new shareholders. The board shall only admit new shareholders in accordance with such policies.

- C12 An applicant for a share shall apply in writing to the association's registered office:
- C12.1 setting out their reasons for applying and their qualifications in accordance with the association's policies; and
 - C12.2 paying the sum of one pound (which shall be returned to them if the application is not approved).
- C13 Every application shall be considered by the board in accordance with rule C11. The board has the power in its absolute discretion to accept or reject the application. If the application is approved, the name of the applicant and the other necessary particulars shall be entered in the register of shareholders. One share in the association shall be issued to the applicant.

Ending of shareholding

- C14 A shareholder shall cease to be a shareholder if:
- C14.1 they die; or
 - C14.2 they are expelled under rule C15; or
 - C14.3 they withdraw from the association by giving notice to the secretary which notice shall be effective upon receipt, unless they are one of the last three remaining shareholders of the association, in which case they must provide at least one month's written notice of the withdrawal to the secretary; or
 - C14.4 they do not attend in person or appoint a proxy in respect of, nor deliver written apologies in advance for, two consecutive annual general meetings of the association; or
 - C14.5 in the case of a body corporate, it ceases to be a body corporate; or
 - C14.6 in the case of the nominee of an unincorporated body, they transfer their share to another nominee of that body; or
 - C14.7 the association serves notice on the shareholder at their last known address asking them to indicate within a period (not being less than one month) whether they wish to remain a shareholder and they fail to reply within such period that they do; or
 - C14.8 they cease to be a shareholder under rule C6; or
 - C14.9 they cease to be the holder of any and all positions as a board member and a member of a committee (unless the board in its absolute discretion resolves that they shall remain as a shareholder); or
 - C14.10 they are a resident of the association and are subject to a possession order or are in breach of a suspended possession order, or are subject to any of the following types of court order: anti social behaviour order, anti social behaviour injunction, demoted tenancy, or closure order or any other judicial order (howsoever named) having equivalent effect; or
 - C14.11 in the case of a shareholder who was a resident at the time of their appointment as a shareholder, they cease to be a resident; or
 - C14.12 the association has obtained an order of a competent court or tribunal against them for recovery of monies due from them to the association provided that if the order is suspended or is an order for payment in instalments they shall only cease to be a shareholder upon failing to meet the terms of the order; or
 - C14.13 they are a resident of the association and are in material or serious breach of their tenancy agreement or lease or licence and have failed to rectify this breach within a timescale agreed with the association.
- C15 A shareholder may only be expelled by a special resolution at a special general meeting called by the board.

- C15.1 The board must give the shareholder at least one month's notice in writing of the general meeting. The notice to the shareholders must set out the particulars of the complaint of conduct detrimental to the association and must request the shareholder to attend the meeting to answer the complaint.
- C15.2 At the general meeting called for this purpose the shareholders shall consider the evidence presented by the board and by the shareholder (if any). The meeting may take place without the attendance of the shareholder.
- C15.3 If the resolution to expel the shareholder is passed in accordance with this rule, the shareholder shall immediately cease to be a shareholder.

Annual general meeting

- C16 The association shall hold a general meeting called the annual general meeting within six calendar months after the close of each of its financial years or such later date as may be permitted by law.
- C17 The functions of the annual general meeting shall be:
- C17.1 to receive the annual report which shall contain:
- the revenue accounts and balance sheets for the last accounting period
 - the auditor's report (if one is required by law) on those accounts and balance sheets
 - the board's report on the affairs of the association;
- C17.2 subject to rules F3 and F4, to appoint the auditor (if one is required by law);
- C17.3 to elect (or re-elect) board members if applicable;
- C17.4 to transact any other general business of the association set out in the notice convening the meeting including any business that requires a special resolution.

Special general meetings

- C18 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be special general meetings and shall be convened either:
- C18.1 upon an order of the board; or
- C18.2 upon a written requisition signed by one-tenth of the shareholders (to a maximum of twenty-five but not less than three) stating the business for which the meeting is to be convened; or
- C18.3 if within twenty-eight days after delivery of a requisition to the secretary a meeting is not convened, the shareholders who have signed the requisition may convene a meeting.
- C19 A special general meeting shall not transact any business that is not mentioned in the notice convening the meeting.

Calling a general meeting

- C20 Subject to rule C22, all general meetings shall be convened by at least fourteen clear days' written notice posted or delivered or sent by fax or electronic communication to every shareholder at the address, fax number or electronic communication address given in the share register. The notice shall state whether the meeting is an annual general meeting or special general meeting, the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business for which it is convened.

- C21 Any accidental failure to get any notice to any shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at that general meeting. A notice or communication sent by post to a shareholder at their address shown in the register of shareholders shall be deemed to have arrived two days after being posted and any sent by fax or electronic communication shall be deemed to have been served when received provided that in respect of a fax it is legible and in respect of an electronic communication, it is in a readable form.
- C22 Seventy-five per cent of shareholders may agree, by consenting in writing, or by electronic communication, to a general meeting being held with less notice than required by rule C20.

Proceedings at general meetings

- C23 Before any general meeting can start its business there must be a quorum present. A quorum is one-tenth of all shareholders, with a minimum number of six and a maximum number of 25. As part of the quorum at least two shareholders must be present in person.
- C24 A meeting held as a result of a shareholders' requisition will be dissolved if too few shareholders are present half an hour after the meeting is scheduled to begin.
- C25 All other general meetings with too few shareholders will be adjourned to the same day, at the same time and at the registered office in the following week. If fewer than the number of shareholders set out in rule C23 are present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting is scheduled to have started, those shareholders present shall carry out the business of the meeting.
- C26 The chair of any general meeting can:
- C26.1 take the business of the meeting in any order that the chair may decide;
 - C26.2 adjourn the meeting if the majority of the shareholders present in person or by proxy agree; or
 - C26.3 with or without the agreement of the shareholders, adjourn the meeting where, in the chair's opinion, the conduct of one or more of those present has become too unruly to permit an orderly meeting to continue.
- C27 An adjourned meeting can only deal with matters adjourned from the original meeting. An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the original meeting. The date of all resolutions passed is the date they were passed (as opposed to the date of the original meeting). There is no need to give notice of an adjournment or to give notice of the business to be transacted.
- C28 At all general meetings of the association the chair of the board shall preside. If there is no such chair or if the chair is not present or is unwilling or unable to act, the vice chair (if any) shall chair the meeting, failing which the shareholders present shall elect a shareholder to chair the meeting. The person elected shall be a member of the board if one is present and willing to act.

Proxies

- C29 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may appoint another person, whether or not a shareholder, as their proxy to attend and vote on their behalf. A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment which may be electronic, to the registered office, or such other place as may be selected by the board and stated in the meeting notice, at least two days before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed or approved and sent by the shareholder or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final.

Voting

- C30 Subject to the provisions of these rules or of any statute, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall, except where a ballot is demanded or directed, be decided upon a show of hands.
- C31 On a show of hands every shareholder present in person and on a ballot every shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- C32 Unless a ballot is demanded (either before or immediately after the vote), a declaration by the chair that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the association shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- C33 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy, shall be determined by the chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final.
- C34 A ballot on a resolution may be demanded by any three shareholders at a meeting (in person or by proxy) or directed by the chair (and such demand or direction may be withdrawn). A ballot may be demanded or directed after a vote on a show of hands, and in that case the resolution shall be decided by the ballot.
- C35 A ballot shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chair shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the association in general meeting.
- C36 Save where a physical meeting is specifically required by the Act, a resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, fax or by electronic communication by or on behalf of the requisite majority of the shareholders, for the time being, entitled to vote on the relevant resolution shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a properly called and constituted meeting of shareholders provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been delivered in accordance with these rules to all shareholders and the requisite majority of shareholders referred to in rule C37 has delivered their agreement in accordance with these rules. Such resolution when signed or approved may comprise more than one document in the same form, each signed or approved, by one or more shareholders.
- C37 For the purposes of rule C36 the requisite majorities are:
- in the case of an ordinary resolution, at least a simple majority of shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting;
 - in the case of a resolution requiring a two-thirds majority of shareholders, at least two-thirds of the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting; or
 - in the case of a resolution requiring a three-quarters majority of shareholders, at least three-quarters of the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting.

PART D

THE BOARD

Functions

- D1 The association shall have a board (in these rules referred to as the board) which shall direct the affairs of the association in accordance with its objects and rules and ensure that its functions are properly performed. At all times that the association is registered with the regulator as a provider of social housing, the board shall ensure that the association takes account of any obligation imposed upon the association by the regulator in exercise of its powers.

Composition of the board

- D2 D2.1 The board shall consist of between five and twelve board members (including co-optees) as may be determined by the board. A majority of board members shall always be capable of appointment or election by the shareholders.
- D2.2 No employee may be appointed (or co-opted) to the board if, following their appointment (or co-option), more than one-third of the board will at that time be employees.
- D2.3 No resident may be appointed (or co-appointed) to the board if, following their appointment (or co-option), more than one third of the board will at that time be residents.
- D3 Except for co-optees and employees, only shareholders can be board members.
- D4 D4.1 The board shall make available the obligations (including the expected standards of conduct) of every board member (including co-optees) to the board. The board shall review and may amend the obligations of board members from time to time.
- D4.2 No board member (including co-optees) may act as such until they have signed and delivered to the board a statement, (howsoever named) confirming that they will meet their obligations (including the expected standards of conduct) to the board and to the association. The board may vary the form of statement from time to time.
- D5 The board may appoint co-optees to serve on the board on such terms as the board resolves and may remove such co-optees. A co-optee may act in all respects as a board member, but they cannot take part in the deliberations nor vote on the election of officers of the association nor any matter directly affecting shareholders.
- D6 For the purposes of these rules and of the Act, a co-optee is not included in the expression "board member" or "member of the board". For the purposes of the 2008 Act, a co-optee is an officer.
- D7 Not more than four co-optees can be appointed to the board or to any committee at any one time.
- D8 No one can become or remain a board member or committee member or co-optee at any time if:
- D8.1 they are disqualified from acting as a director of a company for any reason; or
- D8.2 they have been convicted of an indictable offence which is not, or cannot be, spent; or
- D8.3 they have been convicted of any other offence at any time which, in the opinion of the board:
- brings the association into disrepute; or
 - is incompatible with the role of board member, committee member or co-optee; and
 - the board resolves (by a two thirds majority) that they should be removed; or;
- D8.4 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts; or

- D8.5 they are not a shareholder (unless they are a co-optee or employee); or
- D8.6 they have absented themselves from three consecutive meetings of the board or committee (as the case may be) in one rolling twelve-month period without special leave of absence from the board; or
- D8.7 they are an employee and their contract of employment terminates; or
- D8.8 in relation to any non-executive board member, their terms of appointment, (howsoever listed) with the association are terminated in accordance with their terms; or
- D8.9 they are a resident and are in material or serious breach of their tenancy agreement, licence or lease and fail to rectify the breach within a reasonable timeframe as agreed with the association or are subject to any of the following types of court order: anti-social behaviour order, anti-social behaviour injunction, demoted tenancy, or closure order or any other judicial order (howsoever named) which has an equivalent effect or the association has obtained an order of a competent court or tribunal against them for recovery of monies due from them to the association provided that if the order is suspended or is an order for payment in instalments they shall only cease to be a board member upon failing to meet the terms of the order; or
- D8.10 they are a specifically elected or appointed resident board member and cease to be a resident;

and any board member who at any time ceases to qualify under this rule shall immediately cease to be a board member.

D9 A board member may be removed from the board:

- D9.1 by a special resolution at a general meeting; or
- D9.2 by a resolution passed by two-thirds of the board members, excluding the board member who is the subject of the proposed removal and excluding co-optees and employees, provided the following conditions are satisfied:
 - at least fourteen days' notice of the proposed resolution has been given to all board members; and
 - the notice sets out in writing the alleged breach(es) of the member's obligations to the association; and
 - the board is satisfied that the allegation(s) is or are true.

D10 Whenever the number of board members and co-optees is less than permitted by these rules, the board may appoint a further board member in addition to the board's power to co-opt. Any board member so appointed shall retire at the next annual general meeting.

Terms of office and election to the board

D11 In every notice for an annual general meeting the board shall state those board members continuing in office and those candidates intending to offer themselves for election.

D12 Each board member elected under rule D14 shall be elected for a fixed term of office expiring at the conclusion of an annual general meeting (each a "fixed term") unless the board determines otherwise. The fixed term shall be for a term expiring at the end of the third annual general meeting after his or her appointment unless the board has set a shorter term for the relevant board member on their election. No fixed term shall be set which would cause the relevant board member to serve beyond the end of their ninth consecutive annual general meeting.

D13 D13.1 At every annual general meeting each board member who has served their fixed term shall retire from office. Any board member who retires from office at an annual general meeting under this rule D13 shall be eligible for re-election subject to any restrictions contained in these rules.

D13.2 Any board member retiring under rule D13.1 having completed nine years' continuous service on either the board of the association and/or the board of a group member shall not be eligible for re-election until the next following annual general meeting or, if later, for at least twelve months after completing such service.

D14 D14.1 Board members will be elected in accordance with election procedures set from time to time by the board.

D14.2 The board shall set and publish selection criteria in relation to candidates wishing to stand for election as board members including a statement of the skills, qualities and experience required by the board amongst its members. These may provide for prospective candidates to be approved by the board before they are eligible to stand to election as board members.

D14.3 The board, in accordance with the election procedures set under rule D14.1 shall endeavour to ensure that the board possesses the quality, skills, competencies and experience which the board has from time to time determined that it requires.

D14.4 If at elections for board members the number of candidates for election as board members does not exceed the number of vacancies on the board the chair shall declare those candidates to have been duly elected. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the meeting shall elect the board members by ballot in such a manner as the chair directs and in accordance with the procedures set under rule D14.1.

D14.5 In an election for candidates wishing to be board members at a general meeting every shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every vacancy but shall not give more than one vote to any one candidate.

D15 D15.1 Any candidate for election to the board as a board member under rule D14 shall submit a written statement to the association in such form as the board from time to time determines. It shall set out the candidate's full name, address, and occupation, whether or not they are a resident and the reasons for their suitability to be a board member.

D15.2 In addition, a candidate who is not retiring as a board member must be nominated in writing by a shareholder.

D15.3 The statement and nomination shall be delivered to the association in accordance with the procedures set under rule D14.

Quorum for the board

D16 D16.1 Subject to the provisions of rule D16.2 three board members shall form a quorum. The board may determine a higher number or impose additional requirements.

D16.2 The board is quorate if the majority of the board members present are not employees of the association.

D16.3 If the number and make up of board members falls below the number and make up necessary for a quorum, the remaining board members may continue to act as the board for a maximum period of six months and the provisions of D16.2 shall be suspended for that time. At the end of that time the only power that the board may exercise shall be to bring the number and make up of board members up to that required by these rules.

Board members' interests

D17 No board member, co-optee or member of a committee shall have any financial interest in any contract or other transaction with the association or with any other group member, or be granted a benefit by the association, unless such interest or benefit:

D17.1 is expressly permitted by these rules or under any determination or guidance by the regulator from time to time; or

D17.2 would not be in breach of, and would not be inconsistent with, any determination, guidance, standard or code published by the regulator or any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the board.

D18 Any board member, co-optee or member of a committee, having an interest in any arrangement between the association and someone else shall disclose their interest, before the matter is discussed by the board or any committee. Such disclosure must comply with any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the board from time to time. Unless it is expressly permitted by these rules they shall not remain present (unless requested to do so by the board or committee), and they shall not have any vote on the matter in question.

D19 Subject to rule D20, if a question arises at a meeting of board members or of a committee of board members as to the right of a board member or a co-optee to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair, whose ruling in relation to any board member or co-optee other than the chair is to be final and conclusive.

D20 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair, the question is to be decided by a decision of the board members at that meeting, for which purpose the chair is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

D21 Any decision of the board or of a committee shall not be invalid because of the subsequent discovery of an interest which should have been declared.

D22 Every board member, co-optee and member of a committee shall ensure that the secretary at all times has a list of:

D22.1 all other bodies in which they have an interest as:

- a director or officer or
- a member of a firm or
- an official or elected member of any statutory body or
- the owner or controller of more than two per cent of a company the shares in which are publicly quoted or more than ten per cent of any other company;

D22.2 any property owned or managed by the association which they occupy; or

D22.3 any other significant or material interest.

D23 If requested by a majority of the board or members of a committee at a meeting convened specially for the purpose, a board member, co-optee or member of a committee failing to disclose an interest as required by these rules shall vacate their office either permanently or for a period of time as the board directs.

D24 Notwithstanding rule D17, the association may:

D24.1 pay properly authorised expenses to board members, co-optees and members of committees when actually incurred on the association's business;

D24.2 pay insurance premiums in respect of insurance taken out to insure officers and employees;

D24.3 pay reasonable and proper remuneration, fees, allowances or recompense for loss of earnings to board members, co-optees and members of committees following appropriate independent advice; and
